

1). What is the TOEIC test?

The TOEIC tests are English language proficiency tests for people whose native language is not English. The tests assess the everyday English skills of people in the global workplace who may communicate in English both with other non-native speakers and those from English-speaking cultures

With your TOEIC score, you can:

- get a fair, accurate evaluation of your ability to communicate in English
- show potential employers your full range of communication skills
- differentiate yourself from the competition
- expand your job opportunities

2). What is the TOEIC test aiming to evaluate and assess?

TOEIC® tests assess your English-language proficiency across all four language skills needed to succeed in the global workplace — listening, reading, speaking and writing.

3). What kind of language structure /grammatical structure does the TOEIC evaluate?

The TOEIC exams evaluate English language in all areas of everyday and professional life.

Covered in the TOEIC Exam :

Grammar: grammatical tenses, Themes modal verbs, phrasal verbs, traffic and driving, student life, industries, shopping, weather, transports, eating out, health, celebrations leisure, bank and finances, business, purchases and sales, computers, marketing and finance accommodation and real estate, and corporate life.

4). What different formats are there of TOEIC tests? There are 3 different types of the TOEIC test that can be taken :

1) Listening & Reading

The TOEIC® Listening and Reading test is a paper-and-pencil, multiple-choice assessment. There are two timed sections of 100 questions each.

2) Speaking & Writing

TOEIC® Speaking test, which includes 11 questions that measure various aspects of your speaking ability. For each question, you will be given specific directions, including the time allowed for preparing and speaking your response. The test takes about 20 minutes.

Test takers have to respond to real-world questions and scenarios in spoken and written language. The tests use common everyday vocabulary, phrases and key expressions used in the workplace environment. The TOEIC Speaking and Writing tests can also be taken separately or with the Listening & Reading.

3) TOEIC BRIDGE

The TOEIC Bridge test is an accurate measure of proficiency in beginning to intermediate English.

5). How can I prepare my students for the test?

Student can prepare for the test by scheduling weekly lessons with their teacher both online or face to face. Students will advance in their language proficiency with carefully structured and specific lesson choices made by their teacher. Teachers must guide their students through each lesson, carefully assisting with vocabulary, grammar and technical language linked to their TOEIC exam. Each lesson is selected to enhance the students learning through the flipped classroom model. Student must have greater speaking time in order to be fully prepared for their TOEIC exam.

Why do EAE lessons help you improve your score at TOEIC?

The TOEIC states:

“It was developed to assess the English-language listening and reading skills needed in the workplace and everyday life. TOEIC Listening and Reading test scores indicate how well a person can communicate in English with others in a business setting. The test does not require specialized knowledge or vocabulary beyond that of a person who uses English in everyday workplace activities. The TOEIC Speaking and Writing tests include tasks that people might perform in work-related situations or in familiar daily activities that are common across cultures. The tests assess English language speaking and writing proficiency and do not require test takers to have specialized knowledge of business.”

EAE Lessons will improve your score on the TOEIC exams due to all of our interactive lessons. We provide students the ability to practice through repetition and speaking as well as writing and listening. Students are guided through different tools (ie. the platform, feedback, the chat and videos) allowing students to enhance their listening, reading, writing and speaking in every single lesson. Students consistently improve their English listening and comprehension skills through listening to their teacher as well as interactive videos and exercises given in each lesson. Students enhance their English reading skills by the articles in each lesson, and exploring the context of each subject. Students will study their English writing with our online chat system. Students and teachers have the ability to send private instant messages via the EAE Chat, allowing students to practice their sentence structures and spelling. Our platform provides an Outbox, messages are sent and received in English, creating a safe space for students to practice their writing and emailing skills. Our flipped classroom model forces students to have more speaking time than teachers. Each lesson involves role plays where students must speak about everyday life situations or work related topics. These exercises will advance their learning and ability to express themselves and a faster rate. Each week students will express their opinions, feelings, and general responses freely. Our carefully curated lessons are created for each individual, providing specific help to receive the highest possible score on the TOEIC. Our lessons contain a feedback at the end, which students review to cover any new information or corrections from their class. EAE covers a range of topics which link to the themes and vocabulary from the TOEIC exam. The structured lessons and the themes chosen create a friendly environment to speak English. The EAE method and its various outlets provide an enormous aid to students taking the TOEIC.
